A BAD MIXTURE

"You seem to have gotten your dates mixed," he said. She looked into the paper bag in her hand.

"I guess you are right," she rejoined. "Never again will I buy dates at a street stand."

T. H. Ryan's Downpatrick, an added starter, won the Olympic Club handicap, the reward of his victory being $225 in cash and a beautiful and valuable silver cup donated by the athletic organization, out of compliment to which the afternoon's feature, incidentally the closing stake fixture of the local racing season, had been named. It was the second piece of plate that Ryan had won on the local tracks, one of his horses having carried off the Speechless cup some years ago.

MAHUKU SITE DEGREE SIGNED

Each Respondent Affixes Name And Court Approves

The Mahuku site decree was this morning signed by each respondent in the case, and the whole thing was then approved and signed by Judge Dole. This marks the beginning of the end with regards to the construction of a splendid new Federal building on that site. Everything regarding furnishing the government with a clear title to the property has been done.

A copy of the Mahuku site decree was yesterday afternoon submitted to Judge Dole for his consideration. The decree recites the various persons and parties having an interest in the site. These parties and the valuation placed upon their interests, are as follows: As soon as the Government has paid the amounts named, it will have a clear title to the site for the new Federal building.

The Austin estate $20,248.27
The Bishop museum 31,991.76
J. O. Carter, trustee for John Cummins 17,322.68
John Emmeluth leasehold interest, a total of $25,000 divided between the mortgage interest of Hackfeld and Ehlers, about 17,000.00 and the mortgage interest of Mary E. Foster, in two mortgages, about 8,000.00
Mrs. S. C. Allen mortgage interest in Mahuku property 6,389.27
William Mahuku and wife, 1,645.73
S. C. Allen Estate interest in Mahuku property 2,768.79

A total of $104,497.50
Late yesterday afternoon all the formalities in regard to the opening of Bishop street from King to Merchant past the Mahuku site, were gone through with, after which Judge Dole signed the condemnation decree.

INJUNCTION GRANTED IN MAUI BOND CASE

An injunction was this morning granted by the Treasurer of Maui County preventing the issuance of the big bonds. The case was settled the other day, but this is the final official action. No appeal has been filed, though one may be.

ASK FOR M. F. POGUE

consideration of the electorate of Maui County, and more especially of his own district, where Supervisor Church has done more in the way of excellent road-building during his term of four years than the Territory had done during the past twenty years. Mr. Church has been for many years the successful manager of the Pala store of the Maui Agricultural Company. He will be stationed at Honolulu with his family in the future as buyer for the firm of Alexander & Baldwin. F. B. McCormack, formerly a teacher at Lahaina, and also at various public schools, will succeed Mr. Church as manager of the Pala store.

The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day.
